My dear Mr. Newell,
When I was in New York Mrs. Brett spoke to me of the possibility of having casts made of your altar and temple coins of the imperial cult at Tarraco. I forgot to leave my Cincinnati address, however. I think the best thing to do will be to send the casts to me at the Department of

Classics, the Library, The University of Cincinnati, if you find it convenient to have them made.

I am extremely grateful for the help I have received at the Numismatic Society and hope that I shall have occasion to visit there again.

Very sincerely yours,
Aline L. Abaecker.

Mr. E.T. Newell,

New York City,
My dear Mr. Newell,

When I was in New York I left my casts of the coins from Tarraco with Mr. Wood. I hope to incorporate photographs of these coins in my thesis and should appreciate it very much if you would permit me to have the photographs made at the Numismatic Society. I shall need four prints of each cast.

There is one reading I should like to have checked; I am not certain about the legend on the obverse of the coin (weight 14.8 gr.) which has a portrait of Augustus seated. Is the legend "Deo Augusto" or simply "Deo"?

Besides the photographs of the Spanish coins I hope to include one or two pictures of Augustan and Claudian altar coins from Lugdunum. I already have a negative of the Augustan coin, and I wondered if it would be possible for you to have a photograph made of the altar type issued under Claudius. One of these coins appears in Mattingly, plate 37, number 10.

I should be grateful if you would send the photographs and the bill to me at the University library.

Very sincerely yours,

Aline L. Abaecherly

Mr. Sydney P. Roe,
The American Numismatic Society,
Broadway and 156th Streets,
New York City,
My dear Mr. Roe,

I was very glad to receive your letter stating that you had sent me a copy of Mr. Hill's monograph, but the book has not yet reached me at my Cincinnati address. I have written to the postmaster at Supermarket to see if he can trace the package, for I am eager to have the book by the end of this week. Meanwhile, would it be possible for me to have photographs made of the altar and temple coins of Tarraco which appear in Mr. Hill's plates and are not in Mr. Newell's collection? I have written to Mr. Newell about the latter. I shall need four photographs of each coin, and it would be a great help if I could have them about the first of next week.

I am afraid this is putting you to a lot of trouble, and it may not be possible to have the photographs so soon, but I shall appreciate deeply anything you can do for me. When Mr. Hill's book arrives, I shall let you know immediately. Thanking you very much, I am

Dear Miss Abaecherli:

Your special delivery to Mr. Noe just at hand and the writer took the liberty to open it, as Mr. Noe is away today. The copy of Mr. Hill's monograph was sent to you at Bryn Mawr and as you have written the postmaster there you presumably will get it.

We photographed Monday the four coins of Mr. Newell's and the illustration on Plate 37 of Mattingly's book. Our photographer is not in today and I cannot find the prints but will try to have a print of each sent to you tomorrow. Let us know at once if you want three more prints of these and we will have them made, as I note in your letter that you want extra prints.

Very truly yours,

Dear Miss Abaecherli:

Please pardon the delay in responding to your note of January 19th. I hope that by this time you will have received your copy of Mr. Hill's monograph. To cover the possibility that this may not have reached you, I am sending you a second copy, under separate cover. This you can return when the first copy is traced.

With regard to the reproductions you desire, the best we could do in the time at our disposal is to send you two sets of the plates containing the illustrations you desire. If these will meet your need for the time being and you still desire photographs you can then let us know. If you can't^{not} wait for them, you can have them made more quickly at Cincinnati than it will be possible for us to make them and send them to you. I trust that the reproductions of Mr. Newell's coins will have reached you before this and regret that it isn't possible for us to be more helpful in this particular case.

Dear Mr. Wood,

Thank you very much for your letter. I should be very grateful if you would send me three extra prints of the coins which you have photographed for me. I hope it is not too inconvenient for you to do this on such short notice.

Yours very truly,

Dear Miss Abaecherli:

I am herewith sending you the plaster casts of the coins you left here. These were omitted when we sent you the photographs. Unfortunately they dropped and two or three became broken but I do not think they are injured for your purposes.

Your letter of January 6th to Mr. Newell got mislaid. He turned it over to me and I supposed he had answered it. In this you asked the question concerning the coin with Augustus seated. The legend is "Deo Augusto" - the Augusto part is so faintly struck that it hardly shows. I think now that you have everything you asked for.

Very truly yours,
